FOUR FORTS FAVORITES.

It rained all yesterday afternoon at Forsyth and in consequence the track was a sea of mud. The crowd was light but betting brisk, and against the ring, four favorites and a second choice scoring.

The afternoon's best race was declared off and the opening race was split to fill the gap.

The only bad looking race of the meeting came out of the five furlong scramble. The Deuce seemed to be far the best and naturally opened up favorite, but the ring was full of suspicion, and the denizens carried The Deuce to 4 to 1. Ella Penzance, the alleged nominee, was backed from 5 to 1 to evens and won like a "real lady." The Deuce was nowhere.

Peter McCue, the agricultural colt, won the two-year-old race in a thorough and "trooly rooral" way, and that fast sprinter, Abuse, had little trouble in beating his party.

There is to be an extra race for Saturday 15 pounds below the scale, for three-year-olds and upwards. Entries for this race close Friday morning.

Newport's Booking Arrangements.

Saturday the Newport books will draw in for but one day, so that a new drawing will be made Monday next for all operators who wish to book at the Queen City course.
